County Correspondence.

NICHOLS' SUGGETS.

D. A. Brown departed for the ranch Sunday morning.
Miss Stella Goodwin, of Kansas, is the guest of her sister Mrs. F. L. Terry.

Mrs. I. V. Zook visited at the Platte a couple of days the latter part of the week.

N. B. Spurrier and little son Willie departed to-day for Decatur, Iowa, where they will visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Al Moshier is visiting her people in the eastern part of the state, after which she will join her husband in their new home at Iliff, Colorado.

N. J. Snow, of Ogalala, has rented the John Bergman residence at Hershey, where he will soon move his family and engage in the blacksmith business. We hope he will meet with success in his new place of business.

Rev. Graves, of the county seat, preached to a large and appreciative audience in the K. O. T. M. hall at Hershey Sunday evening.

The new dwellings that Paxton & Hershey are erecting are neat and cozy cottages.

Mr. Null, who has resided on Henry Weil's farm the past year, has rented the ditch farm recently vacated by W. Scott Vaughan.

The revival meetings are still in progress at Hershey at this writing and many have forsaken the broad way and are now striving to enter the straight and narrow path. We hope success will crown their efforts.

The Sweden dance which occurred in the town site hall at Hershey on Saturday night was hugely enjoyed by the participants, and was run into the wee sma' hours of the Sabbath morning.

A. B. Goodwin is at Carter, Wyo., with a view of locating if all "pans" out right.

A syndicate was formed at Hershey some time ago which put up a large quantity of ice.

John Tynan departed a few days since for his new home near North Bend. He made the trip by team.

Frank Zook and family, of the "hub" are stopping with his family at present.

Rev. Hardaway preached to the people of Hershey and vicinity on Thursday and Friday evenings last week.

Archie Strickler was reported as worse Sunday. All hopes of his recovery have been abandoned.

Jake Koch shipped baled east the latter part of last week.

Paxton & Hershey lately shipped cattle to South Omaha. We understand that they will keep nothing but milch cows the coming season.

C. S. Trovillo was the victim of a surprise party Monday evening. A pleasant time is reported by those in attendance.

L. D. Thoelecke, of North Platte, is hauling straw from this locality to his farm south of the "hub."

A Mr. Miller, of Lilac, McPherson county, was the guest of Douglas Brown Friday and Saturday while on his way to and from North Platte.

A man who can afford fine gold watches for himself and wife, and spend thirty or forty dollars in a pleasure trip over the country, and then draw county aid, is in our opinion a "snide," and the sooner the county is rid of such people the better for it.

Constable Lemon passed down the grade Monday morning.

"Observer" the "tool" correspondent from Hershey to the Era would like very much to convey the idea to the public that we missed our mark, notwithstanding he put on the shoe and it fitted to a "T." He is now chewing his quid like a bovine because the people, with the exception of a few of his kind do not take any stock in his sayings or insinuations.

Go a little slow, "Obby," it is a long road that has no turn. PAT.

A SOMEWHAT SYMPHONY.

A meeting was held at the post-office Monday to organize the precinct for receiving aid.

G. W. Miller and family were visiting at James Jolliff's last week.

If reports are true some parties in the south part of the county are receiving aid who should be able to get along without it.

Mr. Dempsey, of Moorefield, and three gentlemen from Arapahoe county, were northwest of here last week looking after their horses.

George Pulley and John Clouse expect to go to the Platte valley to work on an irrigation ditch.

A. O. Randall and wife, of Hershey, were visiting friends here and at Wellfleet the past week.

A Green was a North Platte visitor Friday.

Mrs. G. W. Smith is suffering with a severe cold.

Our school-teacher, L. V. Jackson was off duty two days this week by reason of illness.

Stephen McDermott, of Farnam, was in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. M. H. McDermott. Mr. Porter, of the Republican valley, a brother of the deceased, was also in attendance.

A. H. Mullikin expects to go over to Hershey to work.

At an early hour on Wednesday morning the angel of Death visited our community and called away Mrs. M. H. McDermott. A large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the school-house Friday to pay the last tribute of respect to departed worth. The deceased left a husband and three little boys, (two of them twins but a few months old), beside an aged father and mother, and other relatives to mourn her loss. The sympathy of many friends goes out to them in their sad hour of bereavement. O. I. C.

Commissioners' Proceedings.

Feb. 14—Board met: present Diehl, Hill, Thompson and county clerk. The county treasurer was ordered to transfer $1,000 from county bridge to county general fund.

The following claims were allowed on general fund: Newell Burritt, office expenses for 2d, 3d and 4th quarters of 1894, $82.25; C. B. Jordan, work in relief store $45; E. W. Crane, same, $29.25.

The county printing was divided between the Omaha Printing Co., THE TRIBUNE, the Era and the Telegraph, the lowest bid in each case being accepted.

On motion of Hill the Era was awarded the county publishing and delinquent tax list at full legal rates, commissioner's proceedings, as usual, to be free. On this motion Thompson voted in the negative, and thus gave evidence of his desire to award the work to the lowest bidder.

Feb. 15th—Full board present. Report of county judge for year 1894 examined. Report shows total fees received in 1894 to be $722.85. Report approved as to fees collected.

Claim of Jno. Rylander $15 for land for road No. 55, allowed on general fund.

Report of superintendent of public instruction for the year 1894 examined and approved. Report shows balance of $92.97 on hand.

Nebraska Notes.

The Cozad Tribune is authority for the statement that one of Oil Inspector Edmisten's bondsmen is an applicant for aid.

Reports indicate that a number of horses and cattle were frozen to death on the range during the late blizzard. The half starved animals are in poor condition to stand exposure.—Callaway Courier.

The Grant County Tribune is in favor of a law prohibiting the killing of grouse or prairie chickens, for a year or two at least, in order to give them a chance to increase, so as to prevent their complete extermination.

In Buffalo county the petitions which were circulated calling for an election to vote bonds for seed and feed for the farmers have been returned to the county clerk with an insufficient number of signatures. In Holt county the amount of the bonds asked for this same purpose is $50,000.

The farmers claim, says the Greeley Leader, that if the weather continues cold as it has for the past two weeks nearly all the stock in the county will perish before March 1. Feed is getting very scarce and the weather has been so cold that stock can not feed on the prairie grass.

Captain Haskell, from McPherson county, was in with four carloads of cattle last Wednesday. He told the writer that there had been eight or nine big mountain wolves killed near his place within the past two weeks. The ranchmen all over the county are up in arms against the vicious brutes and are determined to exterminate them. "Every man carries a Winchester," and when they strike a wolf track they follow it up until they get his pelt. One ranchman alone has lost twenty-eight head of 2 and 3-year-old steers. Paul Jensen, who is one of the old scouts of the northwest sandhill country, killed four of these big wolves last week. Jensen is the man who run down and lariat a big gray last fall.—Omaha Bee.

—Rev. Graves, of this city, was at Paxton several days last week assisting Rev. Evans in revival services.

RENNIE'S.

If sugar bounty will stimulate the beet sugar industry in Nebraska and make it one of the leading agricultural industries of the state, then let us have the bounty by all means. Five or six years of bounty stimulus would develop the industry so that both the manufacturer and producer could take care of himself and the bounty could then be removed. Sugar beets manufactured into sugar at home and shipped out as a condensed product, is far ahead of a farm staple that has to be shipped long distance and loses its profit in transportation charges.—Kearney Hub.

The correspondent who protests to the New York Sun against the quoting of a market value for workmen the same as for potatoes is answered vigorously enough in the following paragraph: "Because all men are alike, and as laborers, by their hands or their heads, without any discrimination whatsoever, they are all commodities, with their worth measured by the market price just like a potato. There is no difference between high-price goods like railroad presidents, such as Chauncey Mitchell Depew of New York or George Roberts of Pennsylvania, and a potato. Each is traded in according to the market price. The big railroad men get great wages because the latter are necessary to allure them from other pursuits where their talents would bring them large returns. At every move in life, at every stage of the competition, they are but potatoes, absolutely. Between the potato and the railroad president, or the great commercial magnate of any sort, there is no grade or sort of commodity, human or otherwise, which is bought and sold by the market price. One effect of labor organizations apparently is to get the men who specially classify themselves as 'laborers' so stuck on themselves as to imagine finally that they are unique, and entitled to other laws than those governing the rest of the world. We are all laborers, and, in respect of the market price of us, we are all potatoes. The man who feels his pride hurt when confronted by this unchangeable fact is a fool."

The Fort Worth Gazette rejoices that "the republicans in congress are as badly divided on financial questions as democrats are." Just wait and see. Republicans now are only helping to save something from the hands of democratic wreckers. They will soon straighten things out of the snarl—when they get the power. But they will have to do patchwork until "the four years of Grover" are up.—Ex.

The debate in the Senate Wednesday brought out the fact that the Morgan-Rothschild-Stetson combine is making 8 per cent net profit on the bonds just issued. The London market taking them eagerly at 112 1/2. This statement was not denied or questioned by Senators Vilas and Sherman. Eight per cent is nearly five millions of dollars. This beats the record. Mr. Cleveland's pets are getting on in the world. No wonder such a president could save enough out of his salary to retire a millionaire at the close of his first term. There are things more profitable than even wrecking a railroad or a whisky trust.—Inter Ocean.

The California legislature is considering a beet-sugar bounty bill similar to the one now before the Nebraska legislature. It provides for the payment of a bounty of one cent a pound to the manufacturer, provide at least five dollars a ton is paid for the beets. The Nebraska bill fixes the bounty at five-eighths of a cent for factories now, and three-eighths for those that may be hereafter erected. This is a better planned bill than the California measure. It offers stronger inducements for new factories and doesn't contribute a bonus to those already built, but simply guarantees them a good supply of beets by paying a dollar a ton to the farmer.—Freemont Tribune.

Young Desha Breckinridge has been appointed income tax collector in Kentucky. If he proves a success Miss Pollard should hire him to collect that $15,000 from his distinguished sire.

Divorce has been legal in France now eight years. The first year the number granted was 1,700, the second 4,000; in 1894 it was 8,000; the total for eight years is 40,000. The working classes supply the largest proportion, 47 per cent; the peasants the smallest 7 per cent. Incompatibility of temper was the cause in 35,000 cases. The most common time for bringing suit is the fifth year after marriage. Geographically, Paris heads the list.

Galusha A. Grow, for all his three score years and ten, is one of the sturdiest and most vigorous men in the house. He is more regular in his attendance than almost any other member except Reed, and he is as much in evidence as any of those who are no more than half his age. Nobody, to look at him and to hear him speak, would imagine him to be a day over 60. His back is as straight as the pillars of the Capitol, and there are not half a dozen men in congress who can match him in a stride. Before the war he knocked a southerner down in front of the speaker's desk. He looks as if he could do it now without the slightest effort.
